Set at the head of a private cul-de-sac, this adorable home has been updated throughout inside and outside. The location is a complete surprise! So private, with amazing rock formations with access to Depew Park on one side, and woodland on two others, and not another house in sight!

Walk into the main floor living/dining combo with a center island and breakfast bar separating the small but extremely well designed kitchen which provides plenty of storage and prep space. Apart from a recently installed range, all the appliances are sparking brand new stainless steel.

The master bedroom features a ceiling fan, two large closets, and a fabulous completely new en-suite bathroom with skylight, double-wide walk-in shower, and vanity. The second bedroom is adjacent to another completely new full bathroom. The house is pristine, but there's a lot more in store for you than just this main floor!

A fully finished lower level provides a lot more living space, yet because it's partially underground the square footage is not included in the sq ft., which keeps your
